However, the Central Government remains in constant touch with the State Governments and reviews and monitors the situation constantly. As and when necessary, assistance in the form of modern weapons and para-military forces is provided to the State Governments.

(d) to (f) No such nexus has so far come to notice.

Steps to contain militancy in Jammu and Kashmir

1724. SHRI MURLIDHAR CHANDRAKANT BHANDARE: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are contemplating some bold initiatives to contain militancy in Jammu and Kashmir;

(b) if so, what are the details thereof; and

(c) how the proposed initiatives are an improvement over steps taken earlier to contain militancy in the State?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI RAJESH PILOT): (a) to (c) The Government is keen to resolve the situation in J & K and revive normalcy and the political process.

The security situation in the State is being reviewed continuously with a view to stepping up pressure on the terrorists and reducing the fear of the gun. A few months ago, a Unified Command was also established under the Advisor (Home) to the Governor of J & K. The aim was to create a mechanism wherein there can be continuous interaction and sharing of information among various security forces functioning in the State and local police and to bring about greater coordination and integration in their operations. This has had a salutory effect and in the recent months good successes have been achieved by way of apprehensions and killing of a large number of terrorists and there are signs that this has caused disarray and even desperation in the militant ranks.
